SHOW SYNOPSIS

Rydell High's spirited class of '59-gum-chewing, hub-cap-stealing, hotrod-loving boys with D.A.s and leather jackets and their wise-cracking girls in teased curls, bobby sox, and pedal pushers-capture the look and sound of the 1950s in a rollicking musical that salutes the rock 'n' roll era.

While hip Danny Zuko and wholesome Sandy Dumbrowski resolve the problems of their mutual attraction for each other, the gang sings and dances its way through such nostalgic scenes as the pyjama party, the prom, the burger palace, and the drive-in movie. Miss Lynch, still the old-maid English teacher, and the high achievers of the class, Patty Simcox and Eugene Florczyk, are presiding at the head table once again, but the Greasers and all the gang are back in the '50's reliving their hell-raising days at Rydell High.

When Rizzo forces a confrontation, Danny plays the "big deal" for his peers rather than show the tenderness he shared with Sandy last summer. Sandy is confused and hurt by his strange behavior. At a pyjama party Sandy tried to get into the groove with the other Pink Ladies but gets sick. Rizzo mocks Sandy and splits to join the boys.

On second thought, she turns to the girls for help and becomes a greaser's dream girl. Danny is knocked out. Frenchy is back in school, and Rizzo is not P.G. Everyone is back together to rock 'n' roll happily ever after.

On these longer days, your child will receive correct breaks in accordance with Essex Child Licensing Laws.

Conduct

Whilst shows are all about working as a team and having fun, we want all members of the company to feel safe. Any type of inappropriate behaviour, including bullying and disruptive behaviour, will not be tolerated.

If any child is seen to be acting in such a way, this will be dealt with by the management staff accordingly. In extreme cases, this may result in the child being removed from the project completely.
