SHOW SYNOPSIS

When Ren McCormack and his mother move from Chicago to the small town of Bomont, Ren expects life to feel different - but he is stunned to discover that dancing has been banned. The rule was introduced by Reverend Shaw Moore after a tragedy shook the community, and the town has lived under its shadow ever since.

With the help of Ariel, the Reverend's spirited daughter, and his new friend Willard, Ren challenges the town to reconsider its rules. Set to an irresistible soundtrack including Footloose, Holding Out for a Hero and Let's Hear It for the Boy, the musical is a joyful story about friendship, understanding, forgiveness and finding the courage to make change.

TECHNICAL AND PERFORMANCE-WEEK SCHEDULE

A separate detailed schedule will be issued nearer the time.

Technical Rehearsals

Due to the nature of technical rehearsals, these are longer days at the theatre. All elements of sound, lighting, set and costume come together to produce the creative team's vision of the production. As such, as all professional performers know, your child should get plenty of rest leading up to the technical rehearsals. On these longer days, your child will receive correct breaks, in accordance with Essex Child Licensing Laws.

Conduct

Whilst shows are all about working as a team and having fun, we want all members of the company to feel safe. Any type of inappropriate behaviour, including bullying and disruptive behaviour, will not be tolerated.

If any child is seen to be acting in such a way, this will be dealt with by the management staff accordingly. In extreme cases, this may result in the child being removed from the project completely. If you would like to discuss any queries on a day-to-day basis, please catch up with the team prior to or after rehearsals.
